Hawaiian ‘Ukulele Demonstration

Join Oral Abihai as he shares his passion for creating ‘ukulele from discarded or naturally fallen pieces of wood.

Join Oral Abihai as he shares his passion for making ‘ukulele from local and exotic woods alike. A Native Hawaiian, Oral has been building ‘ukulele for nearly ten years, after an apprenticeship in Lahaina, Maui with master builder Kenny Potts.

Four years on the mainland introduced Oral to the beauty of a variety of woods. Now that he’s back home in Hawai‘i, he loves to create ‘ukulele in his spare time with bits and pieces from his wood collection.

‘Ike Hana No‘eau is a series of Hawaiian cultural programs sponsored by Hawai‘i Volcanoes National Park and Hawai‘i Pacific Parks Association
